C.V.No. 07-281

MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

COMES NOW, the petitioner, Robert Eaton, and hereby Court to appoint counsel in the above captioned. In support thereof, petitioner offers the following:

1. Petitioner is incarcerated and indigent;
2. Petitioner has a debilitating disease that prevents him from being capable enough to litigate even the simplest of claims, let alone a complex case such as this.
3. It has been determined by this Court that Eaton is, in fact, incapable of representing himself. Eaton, et al v. Snyder, et al, C.A.No. 01-733 JJF
4. Eaton has submitted his petition application; but has no supporting memorandum, as this is beyond his capabilities due to his medical affliction.

WHEREFORE, petitioner respectfully moves this Court to appoint counsel in the above captioned, and stay the brief schedule until such time that counsel has had time to review the case and meet with petitioner.
